

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE DELIVERY OF GREEN INFRASTRUCTURE IN WA

TO START A CONVERSATION THAT RECOGNISES EVERYONE'S ROLES IN THE DELIVERY OF GREEN INFRASTRUCTURE AND IDENTIFIES SOLUTIONS TO BARRIERS ALONG THE SUPPLY CHAIN, FACILITATING SUPPORT FOR INVESTMENT IN URBAN FORESTRY IN WA BY RECOGNISING RISKS, COSTS AND THE NEED FOR LONG TERM PLANNING FOR TREE, TURF AND VEGETATION HEALTH

#PLANNING #DESIGN #INSTALLATION #MAINTENANCE

SYMPOSIUM

TUESDAY
4TH APRIL, 2017

FULL DAY SYMPOSIUM FROM
9.30AM TO 4.30PM

VENUE : DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING

Event partners

Tree Guild of Western Australia

Session 1: Introducing green infrastructure

- Launch: Gary McKenzie, President LIAWA
- What's happening around the world – Esther Ngang, Executive Director, LIAWA
- Urban greening : a national policy review – Dr. Joe Hurley, RMIT

Session 1: Green infrastructure in Perth - actions & issues

- Local government and green infrastructure – Nicole Matthews, WALGA
- The importance of data and monitoring – Dr Peter Caccetta, CSIRO
- Implementation mechanisms and policy - Design WA – David MacLennan, Assistant DG, Department of Planning

SYMPOSIUM

TUESDAY
4TH APRIL, 2017

FULL DAY SYMPOSIUM FROM
9.30AM TO 4.30PM

Brunch

Please be back at 12.30

Session 2: It takes everyone – perspectives from different industry sectors

- Planning – Martin Spencer, City of Melville
- Engineering – Avril Thomson, Cossill & Webley
- Landscape architecture and construction – Matt Huxtable, Newforms Landscape
- Tree quality and health - Craig Woodroffe, Ellenby tree farm
- Asset management - Vic Bijl, City of Belmont

Panel session - what are the key issues and how do we overcome them?

- Martin Spencer, City of Melville
- Avril Thomson, Cossill & Webley
- Rob Bodenstaff, Arbor Centre
- Matt Huxtable, Newforms Landscape
- Craig Woodroffe, Ellenby tree farm
- Vic Bijl, City of Belmont

SYMPOSIUM

TUESDAY
4TH APRIL, 2017

FULL DAY SYMPOSIUM FROM
9.30AM TO 4.30PM

Afternoon tea

Please be back at 3.00pm

Session 3: Moving forwards

- The value of trees: learnings from the CRC for water sensitive cities, Prof. Dave Pannell, UWA
- How do we engage with the community? Ian Hunter, City of Stirling
- Developing an urban canopy framework for Perth and Peel, Bryce Bunny, Department of Planning
- Where to from here?
Symposium wrap up

SYMPOSIUM

TUESDAY
4TH APRIL, 2017

FULL DAY SYMPOSIUM FROM
9.30AM TO 4.30PM

Thank you!

For your participation

Thanks to our event partners!

Department of Planning

foodfuture^{WA}

Tree Guild of Western Australia

